A careful study of proportions and volume has the 500GT vessel feeling like a much larger yacht. Coupled with her neutral, light colour palette and clever use of floor-to-ceiling windows, the S-Force 55 is a refined home away from home. She was designed with particular attention paid to the brightness of her interiors, with many of her spaces bringing the outside in with retractable glass walls and doors. The in-house designers of the Italian Sea Group have chosen rare and precious materials for her furnishings and finishes, lending her an air of sophisticated luxury.

S-FORCE 55

This indoor-outdoor atmosphere is further emphasised with her ample open-air deck space. She features two decks aft, both with alfresco dining and lounge areas perfect for socialising and large groups. A jacuzzi located on the sundeck is ideal for sunny, languid afternoons at sea, and features a gym, bar, massage bed, and even a dance space.

On her upper deck, a large, circular area serves as a touch-and-go helipad and convertible entertainment area with breath-taking forward views. Able to be shaded or completely open to the warm sun and cooling sea breeze, it has a shower and an optional fireplace, taking guests from warm days to cooler nights, or throughout the winter months in cold climates. An upper saloon midships backs onto an alfresco bar and dining area complete with cigar lounge and enough seating for a party of 12.

With an owner's cabin and office located on the main deck, and an additional VIP cabin and four guests cabins on the lower deck, the S Force 55 can comfortably accommodate 12 guests with 11 crew.
